

Visit Greyfriars

Scan here for more information.

THEN

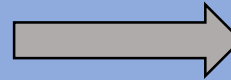

The Globe has been serving Ale since c. 1720. It was a hub for knitting which is where it gets its name, from the tool that knitters used.

THE GLOBE

43 Silver street

A HISTORIC PUB

NOW

It remains a popular Leicester pub with beautiful Georgian Architectural features. Restoration has ensured many interior features remain similar.

